Weekly HEALTH TIP
LEAD POISONING
In the U.S. 9% of pre-school children (1,500,000) have dangerous levels of lead in their blood. Lead damages the kidneys, the immune system, bones, and can lower the child's IQ by 5 points. Lead from car exhaust and old paint can contaminate soil and dust. Antique toys, eras, utensils, lead-glazed pottery may contribute lead. PEDIATRICians warn that reductions of lead in our water, food, gasoline, and paint are still inadequate. Living in an old home or house? GRUBBERS PHARMACY 115 Baltimore Street, Dillsburg 17019

Lady Bears hit tough times

By John Middaugh
Songwriters have written about "behind every cloud, there's a silver lining." When you're down, you can always rise up. You know what I'm talking about!

For Northern's Field Hockey Team, this past week was as bad as it can get. It wasn't that they lost two games; it was the manner in which they lost. Let the record speak for itself.

Tuesday Sept. 25 the Lady Bears traveled to Susquehanna to take on a tough Lady Blackhawk team. The young ladies from Susquehanna have been improving by leaps and bounds in a number of sports, and hockey did not stay out of the field hockey contest. The final was 5-0, and the Lady Hawks dominated from start to finish.

The first two times Susquehanna got into Northern's territory, they scored. But it was that third goal that really did it. I had never seen a team score on an absolute "break-away," except in ice hockey or in basketball, but Susquehanna sure did it. The Hawk goal scorers left Northern's defense and if they were in an other time zone moved in on an unexpected goal and scored.

I don't see no good to mine words or try to paint a picture that does not reflect the true story. The truth of the matter is just this. Northern played as rotten a game of field hockey as they could possibly play. There wasn't one phase of their game that they did well. The outcome and type of play left coaches Kim Reichardt and Celia Andrews just staring in amazement.

The Lady Bears basically stood around. They couldn't stick together, other someone would move up the middle and there would be no wings. Or someone would work down the wing and there would be no centers. The defense, the stringers, the point, the center, couldn't cover, or help someone by backing up the plays. The team does not play aggressively at all, but they do let you know when the other team does. Instead of being aggressive right back, the Lady Bears dropped their sticks, dropped their heads, or just looked at the game officials in disbelief. Meanwhile, the ball and the opponents is going the other way.

But Reynolds was quoted in interviews as saying, "As an actor, you will forgive a lot of things, but he will not forgive you for being boring." For is not being forgiven for having talent, but for using it.

To add a postscript to this report, Northern took a trip down Route 12 on Friday (9/28) and in the same kind of game lost to Crysburg 2-0. It will be interesting to see how they respond and if they have the fortitude to bounce back!

Rescue workers use the "Jaws of Life" to extricate Marilyn Demmy of Harrisburg from her car. Demmy, who said her brakes failed, went through a sign at Carroll Drive onto Route 15 where she was struck by a Northbound van.

Northern Bears win three straight

Last week's soccer results show the Polar Bears earning consecutive victories over Division III opponents Bolling Springs and Camp Hill, and Division I for Mechanicsburg. These wins raise the season record as of 10/1, to a conference mark of 7-1, and an overall tally of 10-2. The Bears are currently in second place in Mid-Penn III, trailing the leading Trinity Shrewsbury by one game.

Northern permitted the Bolling Springs goal with 31 shots on goal in a 4-0 victory at Basic Field. Only an outstanding effort by the Bolling keeper kept the game from becoming a rout. Coach Swenley was appreciative of this defensive effort by his squad, for it gave him the chance to rest players with negative injuries.

Scoring for the Bears was Mario Coo (2), Andy Spicher, and Drew Swerling, while an assist went to Brian Brenner. All 17 players were utilized in the 4-1 win over the Lions from Camp Hill. Once again Northern was able to control play with a good passing game. Only a direct kick by Camp Hill's fourth seconds left in the contest prevented a shut out.

More than a bit of revenge was gained on the Mechanicsburg Wildcats at last Saturday's game at the Cats home field. After getting blasted 2-1 in the first go-round with Spicher, Yolen, and Hess, with an assist being credited to Tom Sump. Goals Eric Sanderson turned in a top notch effort proving that Northern net goal the Wildcats lead, he responded "I'm not really sure I know it seemed like a handout."

Optimally, the team can build up momentum from the big win over Mechanicsburg and carry it into the last of upcoming Division III play. Depending on what this week's results were, the Bears have a shot to head into the week of October 6th looking to take back the top spot, Co. Three!

second half goal for the Bears did the trick in sewing up the win. Scoring for Northern were Spicher, Yolen, and Hess, with an assist being credited to Tom Sump. Goals Eric Sanderson turned in a top notch effort proving that Northern net goal the Wildcats lead, he responded "I'm not really sure I know it seemed like a handout."

My Daze

PEOPLE: Trying to win someone while listening to the World Series. In case I don't make sense, that's the reason. Dillsburg Farm Supply has the cutest little horse on the floor. It's about seven inches high and is powered by a small electric motor, with a remote control. Had me a "crazy" time playing with the thing. (Grease running a mile on them right at home. You can thank Roy Hansen for those Horse picks you get with your Farm Supply horse tickets. Roy got the Co. and they kicked in with the horse and pavement. Roy was desecrated while everyone has his ears or eyes glued to TV or radio, watching or listening to the World Series. The two early Robbers and Karm look now that all the details of Farmers' Day are attended to. You can look for the Dill Pickie any day now. Dilliga be not that!

THE ORGANIZATIONS: Walter Burke advises us that the Greater Dillsburg Athletic League will meet today to formulate plans for the coming season. Last year they organized the Junior Basketball League and the year before they organized the Senior Basketball League. This year they have some crackerjack players due to the fact that the lady have a years experience under their belts. Congress to the J.C.C.s on their recent amateur program heard it was a bowling success with Sam Jones as M.C.

BIRTHDAYS: Happy B to Michael S. Benz, Fred Pennewell, Gerald R. Fleming, Frances E. Lindner, Cheryl Weaver, Mrs. John Morris, Thomas G. Cooke, Mrs. Greens Bearing and see yuh later. Here Harris, October 7, 1993
